

The only outcome-driven employee development platform

You need to prove talent development's impact on the business. We'll give you the numbers to do it! With Growthspace, you define the business metrics you want to drive, effortlessly launch any human-to-human employee development program, and measure its success, all in one place.

It takes four simple steps

1. Select the population of participants you want to impact

- High potentials
- 1st time managers
- Mid-level managers
- DEI strategic audiences
- ...and many other populations

2. Define the business outcome to achieve

- Reduce attrition by 30%
- Increase engagement by 7 points
- Elevate performance by 5%
- ...and any outcome that's critical for your business

3. Launch any program and let it run for a growth sprint (8 weeks max)

- One-on-one coaching, mentoring & training
- Workshops
- Team coaching
- Internal mentoring

4. Measure the impact according to your predefined metrics and see tangible results

- eNPS
- Retention rates
- Performance metrics
- ...or any metric you want to move the needle on
